

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
vs.
DEWAYNE GHOSTON and GREGORY
BRATCHER, Defendants.

On February 27, 2012, the undersigned Magistrate Judge submitted a report and recommendation on the defendants' Motions to Suppress Evidence, in which the court recommended that both motions be denied. (ECF No. 65.) The court hereby amends page 17 of the report and recommendation, by adding the following sentence after the citation to United States v. Allen, No. 4:08-cr-04, 2009 WL 3297286, at *4 (E.D. Tenn. Oct. 13, 2009), and before the sentence beginning with "Finally":

In addition to having probable cause to search the trunk, Agent James simultaneously had reasonable suspicion - based on Ghoston's statement that there was a shotgun in the trunk and Trooper Fuller's statement that the men might have felonies - to prolong the detention of the defendants in order to investigate whether the men were felons in possession of a firearm.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
